Monday LEEDoff: Merchandise Mart in Chicago, World's Largest Commercial Building, Earns Silver Rating from USGBC

11.26.07

News about green efforts across the retail sector has been prolific of late- see our recent posts about discussion at ICSC and Greenbuild, as well as important news from PNC Bank. So, it's not entirely surprising that the world's largest commercial building, which is home to an extensive number of retailers, recently made some green news of its own. The 4.2 million- square-foot, 25-story Merchandise Mart in downtown Chicago is the
