The Guide: Shows, Sales and Things to Do in Chicago

Do your good deed for the week on Tuesday the 25th (and check out some design at the same time). The Merchandise Mart is holding their annual Sharing It Day Food Drive. It is being held on the First Floor, in the South Lobby from 8am to 4pm. Each donation goes directly to the Greater Chicago Food Depository for distribution to over 600 agencies such as senior centers, food pantries, shelters and daycare facilities. Each food or cash contribution goes a long way to feed Chicagoland's hungry men, women and children.
